CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

What came near being a fatal affair was witnessed last Sunday afternoon by scores of people. A street car was making rapid speed down one of the Franklin street hills in order to reach the top of the other. While the signal from a passenger anxious to get off at the Sixth street corner was being noted by the motorman, a boy gave the signal to go ahead before the car had really stopped. The passenger, a woman, was thrown heavily to the ground, sustaining painful bruises of the hip, arms and shoulders.

The annual Eight of August celebration is now fast approaching, and preparations are being made to make the day well worth visiting this place to see.

A broom factory is scheduled to open here on or about August 1. It is hoped that same will materialize.

COLORED METHODISTS.

Hold Conference and Epworth League Convention at Springfield.

Springfield, Tenn., July 30.—(Special).—The Clarksville District Conference and Epworth League Convention of the C. M. E. Church has just closed a very interesting session here. The Conference was opened last Wednesday morning by Rev. Dr. W. Conway Smith, D. D., who administered the sacrament to a large number of delegates, preachers and friends of the local churches.

Miss Lillian L. Hampton was elected Secretary of the Convention, and Rev. H. E. Rucker, Secretary of the Conference.

The reports of all the churches were good, except Wesley Chapel, Clarksville, Tenn., from which no report came.

Bishop C. H. Phillips, A. M., D. D., and wife, came in Friday night and visited the Conference Saturday morning. The Bishop made a timely talk.

Mrs. Phillips made a most excellent talk.

Mrs. H. E. Smith, Misses Bernice C. and Della C., wife and daughter of S. E. Smith came in Saturday morning and took an active part in the Conference.

Miss Lady Emma Phillips presided at the organ during the Conference and gave an excellent programme.

Bishop Phillips preached to an immense crowd Sunday morning at 11 a. m. in Sam Jones Tabernacle; Rev. H. E. Rucker at 3 p. m. and R. B. Polk at 8 p. m.

The following were elected annual officers for the Epworth League: Rev.

T. A. Wilson, President; T. A. Stewart, Vice President; Miss Lillian Haworth, Secretary; Mrs. Clara Stewart, Recording Secretary.

All the pastors of the district were present, except Rev. P. J. Coleman, of Wesley Chapel, Clarksville. The total amount raised during the Conference was $162.40.

Mrs. H. J. Johnson, D. D., Presiding Elder, Nashville District; I. H. Jones, A. B., D. D.; Rev. J. T. Gilmore, A. M. E. Church, and J. B. Booth, presiding Elder, were distinguished visitors.

The Conference closed to meet in Salem C. M. E. Church, Cumberland City, in 1908.

The Woman's Missionary and Sunday School Convention meets at Steel's Chapel Aug. 21 to 25.

PARLOR CONCERT.

St. Paul choir gave an enjoyable parlor concert on Wednesday evening, July 31, at the residence of Mrs. M. A. Saunders, on Sixth avenue, South. There was a good attendance and the rendition of the program was far beyond the ordinary. The following was the order of exercises:

Hymn—"Onward Christian Soldiers".....Choir
Prayer.....Rev. W. A. Lewis
Hymn—"Forward, March".....Choir
Recitation.....Miss Nettie McIntosh
Solo.....Mrs. M. K. Buford
Violin Solo.....W. D. Chappelle, Jr.
Select Reading.....Mrs. M. A. Saunders
Solo—"Holy City," Mr. William Owens
Declamation—"Paul Revere's Ride".....Dr. J. I. Watson
Remarks by Drs. W. D. Chappelle and C. H. Boone.

At the conclusion of the concert ices and lemonade were served on the lawn by Misses Nettie McIntosh, M. N. Whims and Johnnie V. Dixon.

SUNDAY IN THE SUBURBS.

Last Sunday afternoon, a party of a limited few spent a delightful time at Buford College as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Killebrew. A very nice dinner of the old country type was served in the spacious dining room, after which the party repaired to the beautiful lawn and was shown the many things around the grounds by Mr. Killebrew, who always delights in entertaining his friends in whatever way he can. There were chickens galore, turkeys, geese, ducks, guineas, pea fowls, hogs, cows, flowers and everything that goes to make up a pleasant country home. Later on an old fashioned watermelon feast was enjoyed out on the lawn. Those present were Misses J. V. Dixon, G. A. Cayton, L. A. Carden, Mr. and Mrs. James Lapsley and Mr. J. P. Matthews. Mr. and Mrs. Killebrew were assisted in entertaining by Misses Robbie K. Overton, Laura Whitlow and Zenith McCathern. About six o'clock on account of a very welcome shower the guests were ushered into the house where they still enjoyed the hospitality of the host and hostess until about seven thirty o'clock, when the young ladies departed for their homes accompanied by Mr. Killebrew.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which convened in Chattanooga on July 24 and 25, was opened by Mrs. V. W. Broughton, who is President of the body, with Mrs. B. H. Gray, Recording Secretary. The meeting was full of inspiration, six Unions answering to the roll call. A splendid program was rendered, the welcome address being delivered by Mrs. G. W. Jackson, President of the Chattanooga Union; response by Mrs. Jennie Legion, President of the Nashville Union. There were several papers and addresses by the representatives from the various Unions.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. V. W. Broughton, Nashville; Vice President, Mrs. Florence Cooper, Memphis; Treasurer, Mrs. C. M. McEwen, Gallatin; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. L. Smith, Knoxville; Recording Secretary, Mrs. B. H. Gray, Nashville. Delegates were elected to the National W. C. T. U., which convenes in Nashville in November. They were Mrs. V. W. Broughton and Mrs. B. H. Gray. The Convention adjourned to meet in Nashville in July, 1908.

BRILLIANT PARTY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Owens, of 1419 Jackson street, was a scene of a beautiful social Monday, given by Misses Myrtle Owens and Katie Polk. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. Mr. Lewis I. Jones presided at the piano. The singing of Mr. Samuel White was thoroughly enjoyed. Dancing was the feature of the evening. Cakes and ices were served. Those present were Misses Alice Powell, Bessie Harding, Johnnie May Powell, Lena Green, Altha Straton, Cora Baines, Elvira Petway, Hettie Fowler, Willie Washington, Katie Polk, Myrtle Owens, Susie Baines, Messrs. Lewis I. Jones, David Onburn, David Washington, Edward Polk, Samuel White, Horace Vaughn, Dummont Lester, Walter Morris, James Baines, Henry Baines, Isaac Williams.
